

MacIntyre

Providing support...your way

What do we mean by 'Independence'?

Independence is about having choice and control in every day life. It means being supported to do things that work for a person. This could be doing something alone or with support and guidance. Independence will look different for everyone and can change over time.

