

+

Jobs

and

Skills

in

Buckinghamshire

1

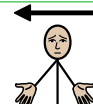

1. What jobs are popular

2

2. What jobs are growing

3

3. Skills needed

This document is about

1

1. What jobs are popular

There are lots of businesses in Buckinghamshire

Most businesses are small (only a few workers)

People

Education (colleges or schools)

often work in

Health and social care (care home or hospitals)

2

2. What jobs are growing

Health and social care

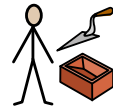

Jobs: Care worker, Nurse, Therapy assistant

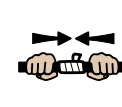

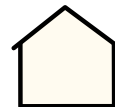

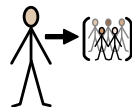

These jobs help children, adults and older people

Construction

Jobs: Bricklayer, Painter and decorator

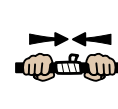

These jobs involve: Building, Fixing, and tools

Jobs: Maintenance worker, Workshop worker

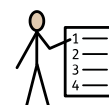

Engineering

These jobs involve: Making things, fixing tools and machines,

and following instructions

2

2. What jobs are growing

Catering and

Chefs

Jobs: Kitchen assistant, Chef, Café worker

These jobs involve: Cooking, Cleaning, helping costumers.

Digital and IT

Jobs: IT support, Media helper

These jobs involve: using computers, Helping technology.

Gardening and

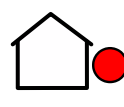

Outdoor

Work

Jobs: Gardener, Landscape and grounds helper

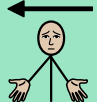

These jobs involve: Working outside, Plants and gardens,

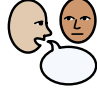

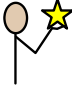

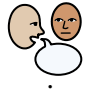

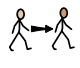

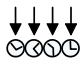

Physical

activity

3
 3. Skills needed

 Employers  say these  skills are  very  important:

 Communication	  Working with others	   Being ready for work
   asking for help, saying    hello, listening	   taking turns, sharing jobs	  arriving on time, wearing the    right clothes
   Self-care and independence	   Basic digital skills	  Green skills
  cleaning up, self-help,    following routines	  using tablets, computers,   tills	  recycling, saving energy    caring for the environment

 Work related learning you can access:

 In school: school cafe or tuck shop, cleaning jobs, gardening,

 admin jobs

 In the community: Charity shops,

 Gardening, litter picking, building,

 library support