Marjorie Newton Wright Awards 2019

We want to recognise the great work that you and your colleagues or team do working at MacIntyre. Please tell us below why you believe this person or team should win this category.

This is your chance to show why they shine! Why is this person or team particularly outstanding? How have they made a positive difference to the people we support, their family and/or colleagues? The nomination will be judged only on the information you have provided.

Please complete this box with your reasons for nominating this person or team.

Additionally, feel free to attach further supporting documentation, photos or film (which may include the person supported or their family etc). If you do add supporting documentation please tick here ☐

In recognition of the contribution made, winners of each category will be personally recognised and financially rewarded at our Special Award Celebration on Thursday 4 April 2019.

Thank you for nominating your colleague/s for the Marjorie Newton Wright Awards.
